The Picture Perfect Design & Remodel Process

Laura McInnes has remodeled over $14m in real estate the last 14 years, 50% were her own properties which means she has some very solid ideas about how to save money without sacrificing quality. She has also learned not to over invest in a property you may someday want to sell and her investments have always sold quickly.

At Picture Perfect, we help you with a complete design plan and we'll guide you on selecting from the myriad choices of materials and colors available today. With our professionalism, dedication and team of expert contractors/vendors we have partnered with for years, you will find the remodeling process much more enjoyable. We provide the expertise that can save your owners thousands of dollars and months of time along the remodel journey.
